Note 1.—Dwelling-houses numbered according to the order of visitation of the Enumerator will be used in filling Column 2. Inasmuch as the number of dwelling-houses in each district is known, the Enumerator can readily check his returns.

Note 2.—Families will be numbered in order, beginning with "1" in each district. Column 2 will be used in connection with Column 1, as explained in Note 1.

Note 3.—Column 3 will contain the name of every person whose place of abode on the first day of June, 1880, was with the family in question. Every person living on that day must be returned, whether temporarily absent or not. Children born during the year ending May 31, 1880, must be returned, and persons who have died during that year must not be returned.

Note 4.—Columns 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26 are to be filled in exactly as directed by the headings of the several columns.

Note 5.—Column 13 will be used to show the profession, occupation or trade of each person returned, whether male or female. Where no occupation exists, the fact should be indicated by a dash (—).

Note 6.—Column 14 will be used to show the number of months during the year ending May 31, 1880, that each person returned as having an occupation has been unemployed.

Note 1—If dwelling-house is without number, write "Without No." If there is more than one dwelling-house without number, write "Without No." No. 1, No. 2, etc., according to the order of visitation.

Note 2—Commence the numbering of families with No. 1 in each dwelling-house, and continue the numbering consecutively (if there are more than one family) to the last house visited, even if the last house contains but one family.

Note 3—Commence the name of the person who will be enumerated as No. 1 in each family with the head of the family, if present; if absent, with the name of the person who represents the head of the family. Then enter the names of the other members of the family, relatives, visitors, and servants, in the order in which they are usually mentioned in the family. Then enter the names of boarders, and last of all the names of lodgers, if any. If there are more than one boarder or lodger, their names may be entered in the order in which they are usually mentioned by them. If there are no boarders or lodgers, the question is not to be asked.

Note 4—Under the head of "Color," write "W" for white persons, "B" for black persons, "Mu." for persons of mixed white and black blood, "C" for Chinese, and "I" for Indians. Persons of mixed white and Indian blood are to be returned as white or Indian according to the color predominating in the individual case.

Note 5—Under the head of "Sex," write "M" for male persons, and "F" for female persons.

Note 6—Under the head of "Age at last birthday prior to June 1, 1880," write the number of years in the case of persons who have completed one or more years of age. In the case of persons under one year of age, write the fraction of a year, thus: ½ for six months, ⅓ for four months, ¼ for three months, and so on. Persons who are one day old are to be returned as having completed ½ day.

Note 7—If born within the Census year, write the month in which the birth occurred, thus: Jan., Feb., etc.

Note 8—Under the head of "Relationship," state whether each person is the husband, wife, son, daughter, servant, boarder, or other relative of the head of the family.

Note 9—Under the head of "Civil Condition," write "W" for widowed persons, "D" for divorced persons, and "M" for married persons, according to the case of divorced persons, column 11, where the letter "D" is to be used.

Note 10—Under the head of "Civil Condition," write "S" for single persons, "M" for married persons, "W" for widowed persons, and "D" for divorced persons, according to the case of divorced persons, column 11, where the letter "D" is to be used.

Note 11—Under the head of "Civil Condition," write "S" for single persons, "M" for married persons, "W" for widowed persons, and "D" for divorced persons, according to the case of divorced persons, column 11, where the letter "D" is to be used.

Note 12—If married during the Census year, write the month in which the marriage occurred, thus: Jan., Feb., etc.

Note 13—Under the head of "Occupation," state the profession, occupation or trade of each person, male or female, as nearly as possible. Persons having no occupation are to be returned as at home, keeping house, or attending school, as the case may be. Do not return any person as a laborer unless he labors at no occupation which can be more definitely described.

Note 14—Under the head of "Unemployed," state the number of months during the Census year that each person has been unemployed.

Note 15—Under the head of "Health," answer the question as to sickness or disability for each person.

Note 16—Under the head of "Blind," write "B" for each person who is blind.

Note 17—Under the head of "Deaf and Dumb," write "D" for each person who is deaf and dumb.

Note 18—Under the head of "Idiotic," write "I" for each person who is idiotic.

Note 19—Under the head of "Insane," write "I" for each person who is insane.

Note 20—Under the head of "Maimed, Crippled, Bedridden, or otherwise disabled," write "M" for each person who is maimed, crippled, bedridden, or otherwise disabled.

Note 21—Under the head of "Attended school within the Census year," write "Y" for each person who has attended school within the Census year.

Note 22—Under the head of "Cannot read," write "Y" for each person who cannot read.

Note 23—Under the head of "Cannot write," write "Y" for each person who cannot write.

Note 24—Under the head of "Place of Birth of this person," write the State or Territory of the United States, or the Country, if of foreign birth, in which each person was born.

Note 25—Under the head of "Place of Birth of the Father of this person," write the State or Territory of the United States, or the Country, if of foreign birth, in which the father of each person was born.

Note 26—Under the head of "Place of Birth of the Mother of this person," write the State or Territory of the United States, or the Country, if of foreign birth, in which the mother of each person was born.

Note D.—In answering questions Nos. 10, 11, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, use the word "Yes" or the letter "Y," to express affirmative answers, and the word "No" or the letter "N," to express negative answers. Leave the space blank when the question does not apply to the person enumerated. Thus, in answering question No. 10, as to persons under 10 years of age, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 11, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 12, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 13, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 14, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 15, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 16, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 17, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 18, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 19, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 20, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 21, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 22, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank; in answering question No. 23, as to persons who have been married during the Census year, leave the space blank.

Note E.—In answering questions Nos. 13 and 14, use the word "None" or the letter "N," except in the case of Deceased persons—column 11. When the latter "D" is to be used.

Note F.—Questions Nos. 15 and 16 are to be answered by a word or letter descriptive of the condition of the person enumerated. Thus, in answering question No. 15, as to persons who are sick or temporarily disabled, so as to be unable to attend to ordinary business or duties, the word "Sick" or the letter "S" is to be used; in answering question No. 16, as to persons who are blind, the word "Blind" or the letter "B" is to be used.

Note G.—Questions Nos. 24, 25 and 26 require the State, Territory or Country of birth to be stated. Thus, in answering question No. 24, as to persons born in the State of New York, the words "New York" or "N. Y." are to be used; in answering question No. 25, as to persons born in the State of Pennsylvania, the words "Pennsylvania" or "Penn." are to be used; in answering question No. 26, as to persons born in the State of Massachusetts, the words "Massachusetts" or "Mass." are to be used; in answering question No. 24, as to persons born in the Country of Ireland, the words "Ireland" or "Ire." are to be used; in answering question No. 25, as to persons born in the Country of Germany, the words "Germany" or "Ger." are to be used; in answering question No. 26, as to persons born in the Country of France, the words "France" or "Fr." are to be used.

Note D.—In answering questions 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, put a mark (/) in each case to avoid the necessity of writing words. If a person is dead, answer all questions necessary to complete the record of the person, as in case of a living person, and add the word "Dead" to the name.

Note E.—If a person has no occupation, question 13 must be answered by a dash (—), as in case of children, &c.

Note F.—If a person has been sick or disabled so as to be unable to attend to ordinary business or duties during any portion of the year, the number of months must be stated in answer to question 15.

Note G.—Question 21 must be answered in the affirmative in the case of every person who has been at school for three months during the Census year.
